

Modern Industrial Technology History

Research Topics

- Railroads in the 20th and 21st centuries (North American and Global)
- Transportation history and policy
- The United States Bureau of Mines, 20th century mining, metallurgy and materials R&D
- Energy history and policy
- Engineering and STEM education
- Innovation, technological change and large industrial organizations

Contact Information:

Jeff Schramm

Associate Professor of History

Email: schrammj@mst.edu

Phone: (573) 341-4808

Keywords

- Railroads; industrial history; innovation; mining history; metallurgy and materials history; transportation; science technology & society; science & technology policy

Significant achievements

- Out of Steam, Dieselization of American Railroads, book, 2010.
- "Nazi Scientists in the Land of Mark Twain, the US Bureau of Mines Synthetic Fuels Demonstration Plant Louisiana, MO, 1945-1953." Article, Missouri Historical Review, 2016.
- Society for the History of Technology.