

Victorian Literature and Medicine

Research Topics

- Victorian Literature and Culture
- The British Novel
- Women's Cultural History
- Literature and Medicine
- Cognitive Literary Studies

Victorian women and medicine

Contact Information

Kristine Swenson
Professor and Chair,
English and Tech Com
kswenson@mst.edu
573.341.4684

Keywords

- Victorian novel; women and medicine; neurodiversity; autism studies; early women doctors; literature and science

Recent publications:

- "Phrenology as Neurodiversity: The Fowlers and Modern Brain Disorders," in Progress and Pathology: Medicine and Culture in the Nineteenth Century, (forthcoming, Manchester UP).
- "Mindblindness: Metaphor and Neuroaesthetics in the Works of Silas Weir Mitchell and Simon Baron-Cohen." In Literature, Neurology and Neuroscience: Historical and Literary Connections. Progress in Brain Research, Vol. 205 (Elsevier, 2013): 295-318.